Founder
Schanen Strategies, LLC
Dallas, TX

Scott Schanen is the Founder of Schanen Strategies, LLC. He has dedicated his professional career to creating and implementing innovative, sustainable solutions for large commercial payers in the healthcare industry. Formerly, he served as President of National Employer Consulting with EPIC.

He began his healthcare career during the formative years of UnitedHealth Group as they transitioned from an amalgamation of regional Health Maintenance Organizations to become the world's largest healthcare organization. In 1996, Scott founded Schanen Consulting, an Atlanta-based benefit consultancy recognized by peers and industry leaders as one of the premiere boutique benefits consulting firms, primarily serving Fortune 500 companies. To further its growth trajectory, in 2001 Scott merged Schanen Consulting with HCC Insurance Holdings Inc, a NYSE company. In 2007, Scott launched his second start-up, Dominion, a health and welfare benefit consultancy focused on serving the needs of large US employers. In 2014, Dominion was acquired by Integro, a global risk management firm where Scott served as the CEO of Integro's National Benefits Consulting Practice.

Scott served as a member of the Healthcare Innovation Initiative for The McCombs School of Business and is an Active Member of the McCombs School of Business Advisory Council at The University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife Lisa live in Dallas, Texas. Scott holds a BBA from The University of Texas at Austin.
