

Robert Zambrano
Business Development Director
CEMEX

Mr. Roberto Zambrano is a Business Development Director in CEMEX. Roberto has been with the company for over 28 years, with experience in business operations, strategic planning as well as M&A.

Mr. Zambrano has been part of the CEMEX team where he has developed his career as well as CEMEX business expansion globally. Roberto has participated in executive roles in Mexico, France, UK and Spain and has executed business transactions in the USA, Europe and Latin America.

In addition, Mr. Zambrano serves as board member in Zinc Nacional, Pilatus Mexico and Pecari Fund, as well as NGO's such as the museums of Historia Mexicana, MUNE and Museo del Palacio and Chipinque Ecological Park in Monterrey.

Mr. Zambrano holds a BS (Industrial Engineering) degree from ITESM (Monterrey Tec) and an MBA from University of Texas McCombs School of Business.